

CAPACITY BUILDING OF ACA’S STAFF PROGRAM

In order to reinforce the capacities of the staff of African Anti-Corruption Agencies, the President of the Arab Republic of Egypt, His Excellency Mr. ABD EL FATAH AL SISI, instructed on 09/12/2018 the Administrative Control Authority of Egypt, which is also the institution in charge of fighting corruption in Egypt, to train 250 persons working in African Anti-Corruption Agencies. These courses will take place at the National Anti-Corruption Academy of Egypt, which is the training department of the ACA/Egypt. As a reminder, the Egyptian Government signed the United Nations Convention against Corruption in 2003.

Group photo of participants

The training will focus on the fight against corruption, which broadly includes subjects on corruption, governance and leadership.

One of trainees during the course

Of the 250 participants who are to benefit from the training, 185 people from various African countries have already benefited from it.

Another training team will start the training which will take place from 1 to 5 March 2020 and during which 36 delegates from 10 African countries namely Burundi, Republic of Congo,

Ethiopia, Kenya, Mauritius, Niger, Uganda, South Sudan, Tanzania and Zambia will participate.

Mr. Emmanuel Ollita ONDONGO, President of AAACA during his remarks

As a show of the Egyptian Government's commitment to bilateral and multilateral cooperation with African Anti-Corruption Agencies, the Administrative Control Authority of Egypt covers all the costs of the training courses, including participants' air tickets, their stay in Egypt, visas, local transport and catering

Participants taking their lunch

Also, during these training, the participants have the opportunity to admire the beauty of Egypt including the visit of the famous Egyptian tourist sites such as the Egyptian pyramids, the Nile etc

Participants in the guided tours of the world-famous Egyptian pyramids

Also, the role that the Secretariat of the Association of Anti-Corruption Authorities of Africa (AAACA) in the coordination of these courses should be highlighted. Indeed, the Secretariat acts as a relay between the ACA/Egypt and the ACAs, particularly with regard to the mailing of information relating to the training. This is under the supervision of H.E. Mr. Sherif Seif, Minister, President ACA/Egypt, Mr. Khaled Abdel Rahman, First Secretary General and Assistant to the Minister for the Anti-Corruption Academy and Mr. Hesham Zaalok, Director of the Anti-Corruption Academy.